Fair Political Practices Commission
428 J Street, Suite 800
Sacramento, CA 2311

7 December 2010

Dear Commissioners,

Last November my home was inundated with political mailers and door hangers. Each one claimed to represent my interests, but very few revealed the actual source of the information or, more importantly, funding.

We need to have much better disclosure requirements for these types of political communications. The most critical would be the information regarding the top three financial contributors. In addition it would be helpful to require that all mailers reveal when an endorsement is paid for (an asterick is not enough).

These simple changes may go a long way to preventing much of the deception that is currently overwhelming CA voters.

Sincerely,

Scott Kravitz
